Dear Middle School Families,

Today, May 6th, Buchanan Middle School leaders were made aware of some alarming threats that came from one of our middle school students. Presently, the matter is under investigation by the Buchanan Police Department. The safety of our students and staff is our primary responsibility and whenever there is a threat made it is elevated to the highest importance and taken very seriously. We will continue to update you with any pertinent information as it becomes available.

Educationally yours,
