Dr. Erin McKean

Dr. Erin McKean was valedictorian of the graduating class of 1994 from Buchanan High School and enrolled in an undergraduate program at the University of Michigan upon graduation. Upon completion of her undergrad program, she immediately began medical school at the University of Michigan, graduating in 2003. She completed her residency in Otolaryngology in 2008, her fellowship in Cranial Base Surgery in 2009, and obtained her MBA from the University of Michigan Ross School of Business in 2013.

Dr. McKean is Board certified in both Otolaryngology and Facial Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery as well as a member of numerous professional organizations, including the American Academy of Otolaryngology, the North American Skull Base Society, and the American Academy of Facial Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery. She heals, saves, and extends the lives of her patients. Her current titles at the University Hospital include Division Chief: Rhinology and Skull Base Surgery, Associate Professor: Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery, Associate Professor: Neurosurgery, and Program Director: Skull Base Surgery Fellowship.

Dr. McKean has also been published in numerous professional journals and continues to research not only the application of medicine in her chosen field but also the education of incoming doctors.
