

BUCKS in ACTION

District representatives recently attended the Whole Child Summit at BRESA. Participants focused on the county-wide goal of Building educator capacity around fostering belonging and engagement, where all are connected and accepted. Participants were engaged in group activities, listened to presenters from Ohio, and interacted with students who shared projects, including our students from Buchanan High School, Sarah Brackett and Sutherland Philip.